

IGNACIO SANTILLAN

DISCUSSION A – DIGITALISATION

TOPIC A2: EU Digital Finance package (incl. MICA and DORA) - a DGS/ICS perspective

Mr Santillán is the CEO of the Spanish Investors Compensation Scheme for investment firms (FOGAIN) where he has dealt with a number of investment firms insolvency situations from 2003. He has also worked for the international legal firm Linklaters as Head of the Financial Markets Group in Madrid, as head of Legal and Vicesecretary to the Board of the Spanish clearing and settlement system, as legal advisor to the CNMV, the Spanish Securities Markets Supervisor, and as internal auditor for a Group of insurance companies.

Mr. Santillán is Capital Markets Expert for the IMF, member of the Advisory Committee of the CNMV (the Spanish Securities Markets Supervisor) and member of the ESMA Securities and Markets Stakeholders Group.

He is Graduate in Law for the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid and has additional executive education on representation of interest at the IE Business School. He is adjunct teacher for Securities Markets Law at IE Law School and at CUNEF University, member of the Spanish Financial Analysts Association, and member of the Spanish Bar Association.