

KONSTANTINOS V. BOTOPOULOS

DISCUSSION A – DIGITALISATION

TOPIC A1: A digital Central Bank currency - possible impact on banks and deposit insurers

KONSTANTINOS V. BOTOPOULOS

Born in Athens in 1962. Attorney at law, Phd in Constitutional Law (Doctorat d' Etat, University of Paris I, Sorbonne). Teaches European Law and Financial Markets Law. Lawyer in the Athens Bar specialized in Public and Financial Law. Counsel to the Governor of the Bank of Greece, responsible for the European banking and capital market framework. Former Chairman (2011-2015) of the Hellenic Capital Market Commission, Member of the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) Board of Supervisors, Member of the ESMA Management Board, Chairman of the ESMA Market Integrity Standing Committee, member of the IOSCO Board. Ex member (2006- 2009) of the European Parliament (2007-2009), member of the Budget and Budget Control Committee, the Constitutional Affairs Committee and the Legal Committee. Author of seven books on legal and institutional issues. Speaks English, French, Italian, Spanish and some German.