

MARILENA IANNICOLA

DISCUSSION D – REGULATION

TOPIC D3: Possible alignment of DGS governance requirement with that of the banking sector

Marilena Iannicola is a lawyer and has a legal background with a Law degree and a post-graduate master at Legal Profession School of Federico II University of Naples. She joined Banca d'Italia in 2011 and, after an experience in the Supervision Directorate, she currently works as Advisor in the Liquidation Division of the Resolution and Crisis Management Unit. She deals with the crisis management of distressed banks and financial intermediaries as well as the supervision on Deposit Guarantee Schemes. She mostly provides analysis on issues related to the liquidation proceedings and deposit insurance system. She participates on a regular basis in international networks on crisis management and deposit insurance framework; in particular, she has been taking part in the European Banking Authority Task Force on Deposit Guarantee Schemes and she has been contributing to the work of the European Authorities and fora to review the bank crisis management and deposit insurance framework.